FAQs

What is IUFP?

IUFP is a six months to one-year full-time University Pathway course, which offer students an alternative entry route to leading Universities across 5 Continents (Africa, Australia, MiddleEast, North-America and Europe) for degree courses.

The programme is aimed at international students, seeking direct admittance at leading Universities without the need to undertake a two-year GCE 'A' Level course The IUFP is tried and tested as it has been around for more than 12 years. Several IUFP Alumni at IUFP Partner Schools are testament to this fact since 2010.

Within three (3) months after commencement of the IUFP at any of our Partner Schools, IUFP students will secure a Conditional Offer Letter of admission from at least one of the Universities that have signed Progression Agreements for the IUFP

Frequently Asked Questions

FAQs

Are English lessons required as part of the course?

The Academic English module of the course is designed to improve the English language competence of IUFP students in readiness for their degree studies at University. Students undertaking the IUFP are required to obtain an Overall Band Score of 6.5 (6.0 in each sub-test of Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing) of IELTS by the time they complete the IUFP if they wish to progress to universities in Australia, Canada, Mauritius or UAE. Otherwise, if they wish to progress to UK universities, their Credit grade in English language in WAEC or NECO is deemed by some (not all) of our university partners in UK as sufficient in meeting the English language criteria. For applicants wishing to progress to University of Hertfordshire or St. Mary's University, Twickenham, London in UK, IELTS is required
